

Getting from Bristol Airport

To the University of Exeter
(Cornwall Campuses)

The BEST way to continue your journey is by Rail

-  Take a train from Bristol to Truro and onto Penryn or Falmouth
-  Coach/bus may not be an option

Book your onward journey in advance

This will minimise stress on your journey:

- Cheaper tickets
- Secures your seat
- Get to know the route
- Plan how to manage your luggage

Rail

Travelling By Train

When you arrive at Bristol Airport you will need to catch the A2 bus (also called the Airport Flyer Express) from outside the terminal to Bristol Temple Meads train station.

The Airport Flyer Express leaves every 20 minutes and is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. It takes around 30 minutes and drops you at the railway station.

From Bristol Temple Meads train station you will need to get a train to Truro, Penryn or Falmouth (depending on where your accommodation is).

It is likely that you will need to change trains at either Taunton or Plymouth to get to Truro. You can then change trains at Truro for one that goes to Penryn and Falmouth stations.

It is advisable to pre-book your ticket due to price and availability. Here is the website for booking your train tickets online: <https://www.thetrainline.com/>.

Coach

Travelling By Coach

At the moment coach companies are running on restricted timetables.

At the time of putting this guide together, it was not possible to travel from Bristol Airport to Cornwall by coach. There are two main coach companies who run nationwide services and you can check their websites to see if they are running any services from Bristol to Cornwall when you plan your travel.

You could get a coach from Bristol Airport to Plymouth or Exeter and then take a train from one of these cities to Truro, Penryn & Falmouth.
